Museum of Western Art Invites Public to Native Plants and Pollinators Program

The Museum of Western Art is hosting a public program on the importance of pollinators in the garden on Saturday, March 3, 2018 from 2-4 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

“Be a Pollinator Champion” will be presented by Pamela Lienhard and Clarence Reed, both members of the Hill Country Master Naturalists. The program is a partnership program between the Hill Country Master Naturalists and the Native Plant Society.

Pamela said, “This is a new program we have developed to encourage small plot pollinator gardens and to recognize the value of native pollinators.”

The award-winning Museum of Western Art is open Tuesday through Saturday from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. Guided tours are available. For more information, please call 896.2553.
