MUSEUM OF WESTERN ART TO HOST MOTHER'S DAY TEA ON MAY 12TH

The Museum of Western Art announces it is hosting a Mother's Day Tea on Saturday, May 12th, from 4 – 6 p.m. at the Pavilion. The tea costs $20 per mother and daughter, or grandmother and granddaughter, and includes having a favorite doll to sit at the table.

The tea will feature a short history of the art and delight of taking tea in the afternoon, its origins and traditions that we enjoy to this day. Guests will be treated to finger sandwiches, tea breads, tea cakes, and teas and punch.

Stephanie Turnham, Executive Director of the Museum, said, "Mary Weekley, a long-time museum supporter, has done all of the research for this event. We hope to have a good crowd of little girls with their favorite toy and parent to learn about the art and history of tea."

The deadline to register is May 9th at 4 p.m.

For more information about the event, please contact the Museum at 830.896.2553.
